BOOKS

OF THE

CATALOGUE

OF A

TO THE READER.

THE following Catalogue consists only of the Library of Mr. Richard Ford, lately Deceas'd; who (tho' a Young Man) has herein sufficiently evidenc'd to all Intelligent Persons, not only his Love, but likewise his Knowledge, of True Religion and Good Literature, in the Choice of such Good Books as are subservient to them both. Which Library is now exposed to Sale by Auction, that you may partake of the same Assistances whereby he improv'd himself. And to that purpose you can't meet with so many proper Books as are in this Catalogue, especially in its English part, wherein you have (almost) an entire Collection of our Best and most Celebrated Authors; with this peculiar Advantage, That they are generally neatly bound, and of the best Editions.

Such Gentlemen as can't be at the Sale, may have their Commissions duly executed, if sent to the Place of Sale (Carriage being Paid) and directed to Their and

Your Humble Servant,

JACOB HOOKE.

Conditions of Sale.

I. That he who Bids moſt is the Buyer: And if any Difference ariſe, the Book or Books ſo controverted ſhall be re-expos'd to Sale.

II. That all the Books (not otherwiſe expreſt) are ſuppos'd to be perfect; but if any prove defective, before taken away, it ſhall be at the liberty of the Buyer to accept or refuſe 'em.

III. That every Buyer ſhall declare his Name, Quality, and Place of Abode, and alſo pay Five Shillings in the Pound, in part of what he buys, if demanded.

IV. That no Perſon ſhall advance leſs than Six-pence each Bidding, after a Book ariſes to the Sum of Ten Shillings.

V. That no Perſon ſhall be admitted to be a Buyer, who has not paid for the Books he bought in former Auctions.

VI. That the Moneys for the Books ſo bought ſhall be paid at the Place of Sale, within a Week after 'tis ended; during which time Attendance will be given for the Delivery of the Books, and the Receipt of the Moneys.

☞ The Books will be expos'd to View Four Days before the Sale begins.
